ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

Unfold and Assemble

Your new bath stand come half assembled . In order to assemble it you need to pull the stand in the opposite directions until it is assembled.

The unfolded bath stand should look like this.

Attaching the Castors

Insert the four castors into the open holes on the bottom of the bath stand legs. Make sure they are inside the metal tube. Push them in as much as you can. Make sure the bath stand is now upright. In order to push the castors in completely use both hands on each leg and apply pressure in a downwards position. Each castor should click into place.

Insert the castors into each leg

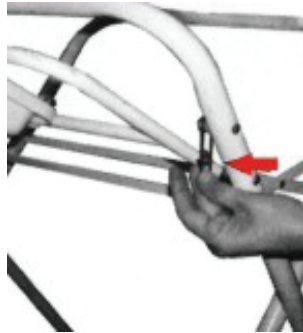

Use two hands on each leg in a downward position until the castors click into place.

Assemble and use soap holder

In order to use the soap holder you will need to pull the side soap bar upwards. When the bar is up place the open ends into the ring. This will keep the soap holder upright. Once it is upright just place the soap holder between the two bars. In order to fold it up just reverse these steps.

Pull soap bar upwards

Place open ends into ring

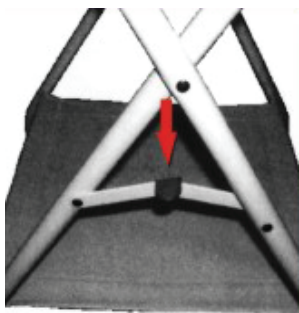

The soap bar is upright

Place the soap holder between the 2 bars.

Lock the stand and wheels

In order to lock the stand into place push down the lever on each side. In order to fold the stand push up on the lever to release it.

Once the bath stand is being used, lock the castor wheels to ensure that it does not move. Pull the red lever down to lock or up to release

Placing the bath on the stand

Place the bath in the centre of the bath stand. Ensure you are on an even surface. Make sure that each of the stands ends straps are under the bath in order to support it.
